Re: *Art Navarro v. The Pep Boys Manny Moe & Jack of California and The Pep Boys -
Manny, Moe & Jack , Case No. C 07-2633 SI*

Dear Judge Illston :

The Defendants have filed three motions that are pending before the Court. The parties have filed a stipulation and proposed order setting forth the parties agreement to the transfer of Plaintiff's case to the Central District as well as to a stay of the filing of all briefs and pleadings that are due. The transfer of the case to the Central District effectively deals with a portion of one of the pending motions. In the interest of economy, the Plaintiff does not wish to respond to Defendant's motions until the Court rules on the parties stipulation and proposed order.

Our office contacted your clerk today to find out if an administrative motion needed to be filed with the General Duty Judge. I spoke with your deputy, Tracy Sutton, who encouraged me to wait to file any pleadings until your return next week and your decision on the parties pending stipulation and proposed order.

The Plaintiff will wait until your ruling on the parties stipulation and proposed order before filing any pleadings and/or oppositions in this case.

Sincerely yours,

/s/

Attorney for Plaintiff
